

The Colony Fire Update

August 3, 2022 6:30pm

Injured Firefighters

Three Hood County Volunteer firefighters were injured while fighting the Colony Fire in Tolar, TX on Wednesday afternoon.

The first suffered burns on ten percent of his body, including his arms and face. He was flown to Parkland Health Burn Unit in Dallas. His condition is unknown.

Two other firefighters were treated at the scene for heat exhaustion. They are both recovering.

Updates will be provided as they become available.