dinner she was very sick and I asked her to have a doctor, I stayed at home with her until the doctor came and he said he thought she was taking Pneumonia. She seemed to rest very well after eight o'clock and I thought she was going to have a fair night's rest. Just after twelve I was attracted to her by a sound and found her

St. Worth July 28/10
 Dear Myra Jim & family.
 Your letter came to me at noon today. Our dear, sweet and devoted mother died Wednesday night just after twelve o'clock. She was sick a few days the week before with the grip but was up all day Tuesday and I thought she was about well again. Wednesday morning she was feeling very badly and when I got home at
